M'CARTHY ISSUES PUBLIC APOLOGY

Indications Point to Harmony Over Water Question.

INTEMPERATE WORDS.

Apology to Public Only—Now in Calm Frame of Mind and Will Work in Perfect Accord.

Richmond, June 28.—With indications pointing to peace and harmony between the administration board and the health department and the burying of the hatchet which has opened so many wounds and the flood-gates of torrid, hectic rhetoric, Carlton McCarthy has issued a public apology for his intemperate language before the administrative board Monday morning, and it is believed that a kindly public sentiment working hand in glove with official missionaries of peace will forstall the investigation which Dr. E. C. Levy has requested into his official rectitude and purity of purpose.

In his public apology Mr. McCarthy says that it is impossible for him to correct the false, and wilfully false, reports of his remarks and their real import, an dthat he apologies for what he did and not for what was reported. He wishes it understood that his apology is to the public only. He was in a calm frame of mind yesterday, and was in perfect accord with the action of the board in its effort to promote gooo will between the departments formerly at issue.

MINER AWARDED $37,500.

He Lost Both Eyes And an Arm in an Explosion.

New York, June 28.—What is said to be the largest verdict ever given in a personal injury case in the United States Circuit Court was handed down before Judge Chatfield, in Brooklyn, yesterday, when Stanislaus Yensavage, a miner, was awarded $37,500 for injuries sustained while in the employ of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Shenandoah, Pa.

On June 10, 1911, Yensavage was working as a helper in the company mines. While carrying percussion caps his oil lamp ignited one. An explosion followed, causing the loss of both eyes, right arm and all but the index finger and thumb of his left hand. He was in the hospital five months. He sued for $50,000. The jury was out for three minutes.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Samuel J. Masters and John B. Kinnear, former chief workman and chief scribe, respectively, of the Modern Workmen of the World, recently convicted on a charge of embezzling $13,700 of the funds of the organization, were sentenced yesterday by Justice Stafford in Washington to pay a fine of $2,000 each.

One man was killed, one fatally, and eighteen seriously injured late yesterday when a westbound Pennsylvania passenger train crashed head-on into a work train at Woodville, Ohio. Most of those injured were Greek employes of the railroad. Eight Americans also were injured. The engines of both trains were badly wrecked, and the engineers are in hospitals. Steve La Das, a Greek, was the only man killed.

Not guilty was the verdict yesterday of the jury that has been trying Mrs. Margaret Schieber of Memphis, o na charge of second-degree murder for the death of her husband, Augustus Schieber. He was a wealthy lumber dealer. He was shot in the apartments of Mrs. Lillian Howell, an acquaintance, last February. It was not denied that Mrs. Schieber fired the bullets which killed her husband, but the defense contended that they were not intended for him. Lawyers for Mrs. Schieber pleaded emotional insanity for her, urging that attentions alleged to have been bestowed by Schieber on Mrs. Howell drove Mrs. Schieber to desperation, and that when she found her husband in the Howell woman's apartments she temporarily lost her reason.

Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, accompanied by his white wife, Lucille Cameron Johnson, is booked to sail for Montreal for Havre on the Allan line steamer Corinthian Sunday morning. The negro pugilist, in response to a demand of the officials, produced a through ticket to Havre, purchased in Chicago. By this bit of strategy Johnson tied the hands of the Canadian immigration authorities. They are powerless to act further than to see that he leaves the country on the ship on which he is booked to sail.

Two hundred tons of fuel oil on board the steel tan ksteamer Mohawk, owned by the Standard Oil Co., exploded with a terrific roar and a burst of flame yesterday afternoon while the vessel was at anchor off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, in New York Bay, killing five persons and injuring six others. A dozen more are unaccounted for. Carlessness of a machinist's helper was reported to have caused the explosion.

General May, on whose pistol were said to have been carved eight significant notches, was electrocuted in the State penitentiary at Eddysville, Ky., yesterday. May was condemned for the murder of Mrs. Belle Meredith, of Clay county. Mrs. Meredith was shot down after May had killed her husband. They had differed over a boundary line. May was first convicted for the murder of Meredith and sentenced for life. Then he was paroled and tried for the killing of Mrs. Meredith. May had been a deputy sheriff. In a fight several years ago he received twelve bullet wounds and was left for dead.

Sixty Mongolian lamas were burned to death yesterday in a pagoda at Kwei Hawacheng, in the Chinese province of Shansi, on the border of Mongolia. They had barricaded themselves in the building against a number of Chinese pursuers.

Chalons-sur-Marne, France—The French avitator, Maurice L. Foulquier, while testing a monoplane for the first time, fell 250 feet and was killed.

MANY KILLED BY THE HEAT WAVE

Torrid Conditions Prevail Over a Large Area of The West.

100 DEGREES BY NIGHT.

Hundreds of Prostrations — Crops Damaged by Sun's Fierce Rays—Duluth Coolest Place in West...

Chicago, June 28.—With the entire region stretching from Chicago to the Rockies engaged in a terrific heat wave that has cost 34 lives and over 200 prostrations, exclusive of a heavy death toll in Ohio, Indiana, and states to the east,the government weather bureau today issued special heat bulletins predicting possible temperatures in excess of 100 before night.

The high temperatures combined with the broad one of affected territory and the official prediction that the heat wave will not be broken for at least forty-eight hours, produced a situation not duplicated in the West and middle West in many years.

Crop damage has been done in all sections of the west. Speculators on the board of trade took cognizance of the weather situation today to bull all grain futures.

Chicagoans awoke today to find the city baked by a blistering southwest wind and the mercury climbing fast toward the 100 mark predicted by Forecaster Cox. The record mark yesterday was 96.4 but at no time during the night did the thermometer register less than 86.

Many families spent the night in the parks. Business men returning to their work today found the loop district a veritable furnace. The health authorities were swamped with demands for ice, and reports of illness among the infant population.

Nine deaths were reported here today, one at St. Paul, and one at Minneapolis. St. Louis and Tucson reported temperature records of 98. Duluth was the coolest spot in the west with a temperature of 62.

MINISTER USES A GUN.

Fires Twice at Chas. A. W. Rohrer, in Boonsboro.

Hagerstown, Md., June 28.—Rev. Ezra Wyland, a mute, was given a hearing this afternoon before Justice George W. Stover, in Boonsboro, on the charge of shooting Charles A. W. Rohrer, a neighbor, with a shot gun, and wounding him in the leg, as a result of a controversy over the line between their lands and the use of a small stream at Eakle's Mills. He was held in $1,000 bail for the action of the grand jury.

Mr. Wyand and Rohrer, it is stated, have been at odds for some time, and matters came to a climax when Rohrer went to the home of Wyand yesterday. Mr. Wyand is alleged to have stepped inside the house and, getting a gun, ordered Rohrer to leave the premises. Rohrer refused to leave, and the preacher, it is charged, fired both loads in his direction.

Mr. Wyand claims that he fired the first shot over Rohrer's head and the second time at a pailing fence to scare Rohrer away. He says the shooting was in self-defense. Wyand is totally deaf, but he can talk a little. He is in bad health.

Rohrer's statement differs from that told by Mr. Wyand. He said he went to the stream near Wyand's home and met the preacher. A discussion arose and the latter, he charges, used unbecoming language and, getting his gun, fired point blank at him.

URGES A LOWER RATE.

Mr. Carlin Says Washington-Alexandria Fare is Too High.

That a continuous city from Washington to Alexandria would result from reduction in passenger rates charged by the electric cars between the capital and the Virginia city was the statement yesterday of Representative Charles C. Carlin, of Virginia.

It is claimed by Mr. Carlin that the growth of the territory between Washington and Alexandria has been materially retarded because of the rates charged by railroads, which he said were excessive.

In an investigation to be brought by members of the Virginia Heights Citizens' Association, Mr. Carlin said, it would be pointed out to the Interstate Commerce Commission that the railroad charged the highest rate of any line in the country in proportion to the investment. Mr. Carlin urged concerted effort in having the rates reduced. He said that business men of Alexandria had not realized the advantage they would derive from low rates.

FLEES SCENE OF SHOOTING.

Scared Lad Leaves Wounded Friend Who is Found Unconscious.

Atlantic City, June 28.—While walking in the woods near Lake Lenape, at May's Landing Thursday, a crowd of picnickers found Edward Woods, a boy of this city, unconscious on the ground, with an ugly rifle shot wound in his shoulder. The injured boy was brought to the Atlantic City hospital, where an operation was performed, and it is believed that no serious complications will develop.

Young Woods was hunting with a companion when the latter accidentally shot him while aiming at a bird. When young Woods fell his companion fled terror-stricken leaving the wounded lad unattended until found by the picnickers.

WEST VIRGINIA'S SHARE OF DEBT

Conference Asked For The Purpose of Reaching Understanding.

T W O COMMISSIONS.

Will Meet in The City of Richmond On July 29 and Attempt to Bring Issue to a Close.

Richmond, Va., June 28.—After many years of litigation, the long-pending controversy between Virginia and West Virginia over the latter's share of the State debt is apparently approaching a setlement.

The Legislature of West Virginia recently appointed a commission to confer with the Virginia debt commission, and if possible, arrive at some amicable settlement in accordance with the terms of the decision handed down by the United States Supreme Court. That commission is now ready to take up its work, and a letter from Governor Hathfield to Chairman John B. Moon, of Virginia commission, requests that July 29th be fixed as the date for the conference and Richmond as the place. Governor Hatfield also addressed a similar leter to Governor Mann, and Governor Hatfield has been informed that both the time and place will be satisfactory to the Virginia Commission.

There are eleven men named on the commission, as follows: Henry Zilliken, of Wellsburg; John W. Mason, of Fairmount; J. A. Lenhart, of Kingwood; Wm. T. Ice, of Philipi; U. G. Young, of Buchannon; Joseph E. Chilton, of Charlestown; J. A. Boreman, of Parkerhburg; John M.Hamilton, of Grantsville; William D. Ord, of Landgraff; Joseph S. Miller, of Kenova, and W. E. Wells, of Newell.

According to the decision of the Supreme Court, West Virginia, owes the state of Virginia the sum of $7,782,607.42, and the court suggested that the matter of interest of this debt which will amount to a sum of nearly as great as the principal, be agreed upon at a conference between the two states in an effort to arrive at some amicable settlement.

The Commonwealth of Virginia has made repeated efforts to adjust the debt, which will amount to a sum until suit was brought in the Supreme Court, that court decided that West Virginia owes the mother state this money with the interest. The appointment of the commission, and the request for a conference is the first definite step West Virginia has taken looking toward a setlement of the obligation.

ADMITS GETTING $1,700.

State Senator Smith Insists Ie Was Not A Bribe.

Webster Springs, W Va., June 28 —State Senator Benjamin A. Smith, charged with accepting $2,200 from Guy B. Biddinger, a detective to vote for William Seymour Edwards for the United States Senate at the legislative session last winter took the stand yesterday in his own defense.

Senator Smith was quiet, although there were a number of conflicting statements in his story which made him a target for a severe cross-examination at the hands of Congressman S. B. Avis.

The Roane county Senator admitted receiving$ 1,700 of the alleged bribe money, but asserted that the detective had insisted upon his taking the money and declared that it was not in the nature of a bribe, but as expense money.

The vote given Emmett Showalter on the first ballot for United States Senator immediately prior to his receipt of the first $100 from the detective. Senator Smith, explained as complimentary because of his personal friendship for the Fairmont man.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

One Man Dead And Another Seriously Wounded.

Petersburg, Va., June 28.George W. Nunnally lies dead in his room at the house of Mrs. L. H. Hayden, on Grove Avenue, with a bullet wound through his heart, and Waverly Blanks is in the hospital with a bullet in the abdomen, the result of a shooting which occurred in Nunnally's room last night about 9:30 o'clock. The shooting is a mystery. Both men are engineers on the Norfolk and Western Railroad and apparently had been the best of friends.

According to the statement of Mrs. L .H. Hayden, who rents a room to Nunnally, Blanks who lives with his family and rents the upper floor of the house, went into Nunnally's room where Nunnally was sleeping and woke him up. What passed between the two men Mrs Hayden did not hear, but later on she heard loud talking and strong language being used by Blanks. Mrs. Hayden went to the room and requested the men to stop, as their language could be heard on the streets and would attract attention. Nunnally said that he would, but Blanks told her to go away, as it was none of her business. A little later the shooting occurred, and Blanks came out of the room and told Mrs. Hayden that Nunnally had shot him and then shot himself Mrs. Hayden told Blanks that if he had taken her advice the shooting would never have occurred.

Blanks was taken to the hospital at once, and Nunnally was dead before any assistance could be rendered him.

A pistol with two of the five cartridges fired was found lying on the floor near the bed upon which Nunnally's body was lying.

There are rumors of more than two shots being heard, an dalso that Blanks had a pistol and was seen with it yesterday, but no pistol was found on Blanks when he was searched at the hospital the only weapon he had being a pair of brass knuckles.

Nunnally is a widower and leaves seven children, who live with relatives near DeWitt, in Dinwiddie county. Blanks is married and has two children.

Shortly after midnight a pistol was found near the Norfolk and Western tracks in the rear of the Hayden home, where the shooting took place. Two bullets had been fired from it. The watchman at the Dunlop factory reported that he had seen a man run in that direction and throw something away.

This discovery throws a new light on the shooting and Blanks may have to face a serious charge if he recovers. His condition is very serious, but not necessary fatal.

VINDICATED BY EDUCATION BOARD

Patrick County School Superintendent Re-Elected Despite Charges.

37 POSITIONS FILLED.

Named After Five Days' Session—Ten Division Superintendents Go Over Until August.

Richmond, Va., June 28.—After a session lasting five days, The State Board of Education announced last night the election of thirty-seven division superintendents for the public schools of Virginia. For four days the board sat in public, hearing from the candidates and sifting various charges. Yesterday was spent in executive session in the Governor's office.

It was announced afterwards that the elections had been harmonious, and while not by unanimous vote in every case, members of the board generally believed that the best interests of the schools had been served. Ten contested cases were passed by until the next meeting of the board on August 15, in order to allow the members time to examine certain endorsements and to inquire more closely into local conditions. In the case of Bristol city the election was passed by for the present, the law providing for the appointment of one of the local school trustees to serve until certain local conditions can be adjusted.

George W. Via, superintendent of schools of Patrick county, against whom charges affecting his moral character and his methods of conducting the schools were introdueed was re-elected. Mr. Via denied all of the charges, and in some instances was able to introduce affidavits explaining what were regarded by the other side as suspicious circumstances. With directly conflicting evidence and many indications of local prejudice, his re-election by the board is taken as a complete vindication. I. E. Franch, superintendent of schools of Dickenson county, against whom certain charges were brought, which were later proved to be forgeries, was also re-elected. The Nansemond County case, about which there was some controversy, was among those passed by until August 15. Some of the Northern Neck counties were passed by, not because of any lack of available candidates, but because the State Board is considering the arrangement of the divisions, grouping the counties more compactly.

BROKERS WIN POINT.

Garrison Withdraws Question of District Jurisdiction Over Highway Bridge.

Secretary of War Garrison has withdrawn his request for an opinion as to the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia over that section of Alexander Island adjacent to the southern approach of the Highway bridge across the Potomac. This leaves with the War Department the question as to whether the pawnbrokers occupying buildings near the Virginia approach, on the theory that they are beyond the jurisdiction of the District, shall be permitted to build a board platform connecting the approach with their places of business.

The Attorney General informed the Secretary of War that he did not consider the question of allowing the erection of board platform on the southern approach of the bridge of sufficient consequence to justify an opinion on a question of so much importance and controversy as that involving the boundary line between the District of Columbia and the State of Virginia.

TORRID WAVE PREVAILS.

Depressing Heat Yesterday and Last Night--Conditions Unchanged Today

While the first half of the month of June was marked by unseasonably low temperature, the last days of the month have brought the most trying weather of the year. Conditions have been almost unbearable—especially last night, when sleep in many cases was out of the question.

Children tossed and fretted while their elders fanned and longed for gales of Araby or soft Zephyrs from any quarter.

Early in the night cloudy conditions prevailed and there were suspicions of rain at times, but while lightning was flashing and thunder rolled on the Maryland hills, no showers fell in Alexandria.

While the wind changed to the north during the night, conditions were practically unchanged this morning. The Weather Bureau predicts several days more of torrid weather.

THE TORRID WAVE.

Deaths Reported in Several Cities And Many Prostrations.

Chicago, June 28.—With Chicago, Cincinnati, Evansville, St. Louis, Memphis, Bismarck, N. Dak., Omaha, and Springeld as the centers of stress, the whole middle west is a furnace of heat. Excessive temperatures caused deaths in all these cities and a score of others yesterday. Prostrations were many and severe. Six deaths and sixteen prostrations is the Chicago record; Gary, Ind., reports two deaths. The steel city was a sweltering inferno. The lake breeze, usually counted on to modify conditions, failed to make it self felt until after sundown. Milwaukee reported two deaths from the heat and a dozen prostrations on "the hottest day of the year." Cleveland has had fifteen fatalities since Thursday noon, several of them babies in congested districts.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 28.—Nine deaths were reported as due to the excessive humidity in the city yesterday, and considerable damage was wrought by lightning during a briet electrical storm here last night. Passengers on trolley cars were stampeded when bolts struck the vehicles. Several industrial establishments were set on fire, and many poles and trees were splintered by the lightning.

Weather map experts held out no hope of relief. On the contrary, current conditions presage a continuance of high temperatures for two or three days.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

SPEAKERSHIP CANDIDATES.

Retirement of Byrd Brings Forward Names of Many Legislators.

Richmond, June 28.—Indications are that the fight for the speakership of the next House of Delegates, will be one of the hottest of years, and it will probably not be settled until the body meets and a caucus is held. Edwin P. Cox, for several years a member of the House from the city of Richmond, is an active candidate, and has many promises of support. He is the chairman of the Democratic caucus of the House. Judge Martin Williams, brother of the Attorney-General, and Democratic floor leader, in the House, is his most active opponent. Hugh A. White, of Rockbridge, who took a leading part in the tax discussions of last session, is mentioned. Walter T. Oliver, of Fairfax, is a receptive candidate. Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, is an active candidate, and will have the support of the eastern section of the state generally. Major James N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, one of the veteran members of the House, is mentioned.

Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd did not offer for re-election to the House from Winchester and Frederick county. Present indications are that there will be unusually large number of new members of the next House, so that the speakership fight may be in doubt until the actual organization takes place.

RICHMOND FLY TRAP.

Barrel of Insects Die in this Trap.

Richmond, June, 28—Richmond's packing houses are all screened, anyhow, and the fly has a hard time breaking in, but the meat men go further, and are making every effort to keep the filthy insects away even from the walls of their plants.

Dr. Harry K. Walter, inspector in charge of the United States bureau of animal industry, had read somewhere that the best way to defend yourself is to attack your enemy; so he put the packers "wise" to a grand little scheme for beating the flies—the out-door fly-trap.

Eight strips of wood a half inch square are set up as corners of an octagonal frame two feet high, tacked to hoops at top and bottom. Over this is fastened ordinary wire screening, with a lid in the top, the bottom being coned up sharply to a small hole. The strips are allowed to project an inch or so below the wire, forming legs for the trap to stand on. Under the cone is placed a saucer containing sugar and water, or, best of all, some stale beer.

The flies are drawn to this trap as by a magnet, visit the saucer, fly upward into the cone, crawl through the little hole, fly upward again—and they never find the hole out.

The steam hose, or a dip into a barrel of water, ends their career.

Literally, a barrel of dead flies has been killed in less than a week at the packing houses.

Dr. Walter thinks one of these traps at every kitchen, restaurant, table and other fly resort would act as a sure preventive of fly troubles forevermore.

Auto Destroyed.

Suffolk, Va., June, 28—The $3,500 touring car owned and driven by George B. Robertson, a wealthy lumber manufacturer, of Whaleyville, Nansemond county, caught fire on the road from Whaleyville, to Suffolk yesterday and in the explosion and 10 gallons of gasoline which followed, the car was completely destroyed. Mr. Robertson jumped out and fled to the fields just in time to escape the explosion. A big oak tree, under which the car was standing, was partly burned.

Farmer Kills Self.

Bristol, Va., Tenn., June 28—Retiring last night in good spirits after telling his wife of his tasks for the morrow, James Weaver, aged 40 prosperous farmer, near Bristol, arose from his bed before day break yesterday morning, went to an adjoining room, where his two children slept, and blew his brains out with a shotgun. He left nothing in explanation.

$35,000 Raised for Y. M. C. A.

Bristol, Va-Tenn., June 28—Concluding a campaign of six days' active work, the Bristol Young Men's Christian Association announced Thursday night that it had raised $35,000 to pay off its indebtedness and provide operating capital. Association boosters regard this as a notable record for a city of 20,000 people.

INJUNCTION PERMANENT.

Lynchburg Will Not Have to Pay Taxes on Water Shed.

Richmond, Va. June 28.—Judge Scott, of the City Circuit Court, has made permanent an injunction which the city of Lynchburg recently sued out against State Auditor Moore and officials of Amherst county relative to the question of taxing certain watersheds in Amherst which are used by Lynchburg in connection with its water plant. The gist of the decision is that Lynchburg will not have to pay any taxes on the watershed property.

FIVE GUILTY OF MURDER.

Four Negroes get Short Terms While One is to Serve 12 Years.

Winchester, Va. June 28—Despite the fact that a coroner's jury failed to fix the blame for the murder of Clyde J. Carpenter, a young white man, five negroes have been convicted of complicity in the crime and sentenced to terms in prison.

Judge Thomas W. Harrison Thursday afternoon sentenced Houston Taylor, Aquilla Stephenson, George Thomas, and Charles Brooks, to serve four months each in jail for complicity in the crime.

Charles Fisher, who was considered a leader in the crime, having fired the fatal shot, was given twelve years in the penitentiary at his trial a few days ago. The negroes sentenced yesterday turned state's evidence.

The murder of Carpenter, who was an insurance agent and who had separated from his young wife in Harrisonburg, was alleged to have been due to his attentions to Minnie Evans, an attractive mulatto, who is a daughter of William Evans, son of "Shug" Evans, a negro liveryman.

Carpenter had been warned to cease his attentions to the girl, but was waylaid one night about the middle of April and murdered on one of the streets of Winchester.

Boy Drowned.

Richmond, Va., June 28.—Roland C. Woodall, the thirteen-year-old son of R. Clifford Woodall, of Smith street, was drowned yesterday afternoon while bathing in the James river near the old pump house.

STRIKE IN ROANOKE.

Report That Several Street Car Men Give up Fight is Denied.

Roanoke, Va., June 28.—The first break in the ranks of the striking street car men occurred Thursday, when one of the members of the union forces accepted a position with the street railway company, and was given a run, starting to work yesterday. The report was current that others had given up the fight, but this was later denied by labor men.

DOUBLE ELECTROCUTION.

Negro Who Ataacked Woman And Wife Murderer Executed at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., June 28.—Without a word to send back to his relatives, Nelson V. Carter, of Spotsylvania county, who, on February 6 shot and killed his wife, Hattie B. Carter, went to his death in the electric chair at 7:02 o'clock yesterday morning. Shortly afterward Owen Goggin, a negro, who attacked Mrs. Ras. Nance, in Bedford county, paid the death penalty for his crime. He murmured a prayer as he was seated in the death chair.

Carter's body was taken in charge by relatives and shipped to Spotsylvania county for burial. No disposition of Goggin's body has been made.

NO PROFIT IN TOBACCO.

Virginia Planters are Testifying Before Congressional Committee.

Washington, D. C., June 28—Monthly census reports upon the amount of tobacco in the hands of manufacturers was suggested to the tobacco commission by J. H. Fulcher, of Amherst county, Va,. as an assistance within the power of congress to extend to the tobacco industry. The report would be similar to those now issued in regard to cotton.

He further suggested that the United States enter into negotiations with foreign governments purchasing tobacco here for higher prices on the better grades of tobacco.

Mr. Fulcher said it would be a help to the tobacco business if a law were passed to prohibit the sale of "primings" and "suckers."

George H. Bowles, another Amherst county farmer, testified that the cost of raising dark tobacco in Virginia was over 7 cents a pound and the price received by the farmer was not more than 6 3-4 cents.

"Not more than 25 per cent of the farmers make any profit," he said.

Neither witness was ready to approve a government monopoly of the tobacco business.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family, a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

"GO TO WORK, OR GET OUT."

"Go to work, get out of Elizabeth City, or go to the roads," is the proposition which Judge Turner of the N. C. corporation court has put up to all negroes in the city.

He has issued orders to the police to rigidly enforce the vagrancy law and make a specialty of seeing to it that negroes work. The city has been for a long time infested with negro vagrants who manage to exist somehow without labor or visible means of support.

Elizabeth City of late has been unhealthy for a lot of citizens who have for many years been loafing and plying their various criminal trades. A host of them already have left the city and Judge Turner proposes that they shall stay away.

Nearly every Southern city since the days of the Freedman's Bureau has been infested with idle negroes, especially during the summer months. The Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria recently called attention to this fact that merchants were seriously handicapped by the scarcity of labor, notwithstanding many of the colored race were "standing all the day idle."

Many negroes, unfortunately, imagine that the etomology of the word freedom is to lay down the shovel and the hoe henceforth and forever.

RETIREMENT OF DR. BLACKFORD

The Southern Churchman publishes the following editorial in todays paper.

A statement that has carried widespread regret to hundreds, if not thousands, of persons all over this country, is that at the end of this session Dr. L. M. Blackford retires from his position as principal of the Episcopal High School, and closes his splendid career as a teacher and trainer of young men.

More than forty years ago, Dr. Blackford came to the High School as its principal, when the school was at the lowest ebb in its history—a young man, full of high ideals and noble conceptions, and began that career which has made him one of the greatest Preparatory School teachers in this country, and the High School, one of the most noted schools in the United States. The school is literally the expression of the ideals of its great principal, and is a notable illustration of the power and influence of a fine life and high example. There is a tradition among the "old boys," whether true or not, this writer does not know, that one of Dr. Blackford's first acts at the school, as its new principal, was to send home all the boys there, except four, because they could not grasp the spirit of the new principles on which the school was to be conducted. Whether untrue or true, this illustrates the spirit of the man, and how his "old boys," thought of him.

Dr. Blackford did a great work at the High School, and the power of that work was much more far-reaching than the mere intellectual. The Doctor was, above all things, the Christian gentleman, and his aim was to make not only scholars, but Christian gentlemen of the very highest type. He loved the Church with a great and abiding love, and her ideals were his ideals. How many of his "boys" he influenced towards the work of the Christian ministry only the great Head of the Church will ever know.

The Church in his own Diocese recognized his love and loyalty, and for almost a generation he was a member of the Standing Committee and for many years a deputy to the General Convention.

Washington and Lee University, recognizing his leadership in his chosen profession, made him a Doctor of Laws. But his noblest memorial will always be in the hearts and lives of the men he taught and in the fine record he inspired them to make in their life work.

It is hard to think of the educational world without the active presence and work of Dr. Blackford, and now that increasing years have led to his retirement from the work of his love, his many friends wish him years of pleasant peace and restful leisure, that he may enjoy somewhat the fruits of a nobly-spent life.

HOW TO MAKE BAD BOYS BECOME BAD MEN.

The Philadelphia Record, referring to Mayor Gaynor's aversion to the arrest of boys, says:

Of course something must be done to bad boys; they can't be left to become as bad as they might be. Persons and property have got to be protected from them in some way But in regarding the present interests of adults there ought to be some consideration for the future interests of the juveniles.

Every thoughtful person must feel a good deal of sympathy with the Mayor of New York in his strong objections to the arrest of boys for petty offenses. They are arrested by policeman, locked in cells over night and arraigned before a magistrate in the morning. It's the best way in the world to make an unruly boy a sort of hero in his "gang," to make him bitter toward the police and the civil power which the policeman represents, and to familiarize him with crime and criminals, and the atmosphere of the Criminal Courts and penal institutions.

Every effort should be made to avoid the necessity of locking boys up in cells and of taking them into Criminal Courts and identifying them in their own minds with the law-breakers, the enemies of the social order. If they get the name, even in their own minds, they will play the game, and nothing is more important to the boys who are inevitably exposed to unwholesome influences than to keep from them the criminal atmosphere, associations and habits. An arrest starts a boy's record wrong; when the cell door closes on him the door to the criminal life swings open. The boys must be kept in order, but with the minimum use of police and the ordinary criminal machinery.

REFUSE TO GIVE UP FLAG.

Toledo, O., Officiels Ignore Order From Navy Department.

Toledo, O., June 28.—Officials of the Toledo Museum of Art refused to deliver to Ensign Lowry, sent from Annapolis, by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, the Commodore Perry flag bearing the inscription "Don't Give UP The Ship." Several weeks ago the Secretary of the Navy issued an order loaning the flag to the City of Toledo for three months. It was to be the central figure in an art historic display in connection with the Perry victory centenial celebration to continue during the summer.

Ensign Lowry bore an order countermanding the loan of the flag of Toledo and instructed him to proceed with it to Erie Pa., and place it aboard the Perry flagship Niagara, raised from the bottom of Misery Bay, and which is to be conveyed this summer to lake cities which will celebrate the Perry victory.

Ensign Lowry wired to Washington for further instructions. Art museum directors and local Perry committee have taken the matter up with Congressman Sherwood of the Toledo district, and wired Senators Burton and Pomerene, of Ohio, to use their influence to have the flag remain in Toledo as ordered originally.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

CASE OF MRS. FITZHUGH.

Goes Back to the Tombs to Await Trial After the Return of Witnesses.

New York, June 28.—Mrs. Randolph Fitzhugh, woman of mystery, whose persistent refusal to reveal her real name after her arrest on charges of stealing purses from women in fashionable churches, was allowed to withdarw her plea of guilty yesterday and substitute a plea of not guilty.

It was after the plea of guilty had been accepted that, going beyond precedent in the New York courts, Judge Swann offered to let the woman change it if one of the jurors who had sat in her case should declare that he would have freed her. Thereupon, to the astonishment of the court, two jurors so declared.

Creed Fulton, the woman's lawyer, after the plea of guilty was withdrawn and the plea of not guilty accepted, stipulated that he would not move for trial until several witnesses now in Europe, had returned. He also agreed not to move a dismissal of the case for a lack of prosecution in the meantime.

"Mrs. Fitzhugh" went back to the tombs, Fulton saying there was no need to fix bail, inasmuch as there was no one to go on her bond. If he could arrange it later, he would give the district attorney's office sufficient notice.

INQUEST AT MIDNIGHT.

Vitnesses in the Case of Miss Florence Wainwright Examined.

Salisbury, Md., June 28.—Last midnight Wicomico Courthouse, a red brick building, sitting in the midst of a group of whitewashed trees at this place, was surrounded by a curious crowd, who anxiously awaited the findings of the jury of inquest that had been impaneled to investigate the death of Miss Florence Wainwright on June 21 at the offices of the Home Gas Company on Main street.

Earlier in the day a so called informal meeting of the directors of the Home Gas Company was held. Besides the directors there was present W. Leonard Wailes, of the firm of Ellegood, Freeney & Wailes, who acted at the inquest as assistant to the State's attorney.

The inquest was conducted in the courthouse after permission to use it had been given by Judge H. L. D. Stanford, who arrived here yesterday morning from Princess Anne. Every door in the building except that on the northeast side was closed.

Two patrolmen stood guard to see that only members of the jury and witnesses were admitted. Near the door stood many spectators, including some of the most prominent persons in this section. State Senator Jesse D. Price and others walked about while a member of the police department kept pace with reporters who were in the crowd, to see that they made no attempt to steal into the courthouse.

This is a requirement that can and must be complied with. The policemen are expected and directed to report to the police court the owners of all unlicensed dogs, and also are expected to locate all dogs sent away for the summer months and brought back in late fall; and to report such efforts to evade the payment of the license by their owners. The license on each dog, regardless of sex is One Dollar and fifty ($1.50) cents.

TELLS STORY OF BRIBERY

Former City Councilman of East St. Louis Implicates Ex-Mayor and Others.

St. Louis, June, 28—An investigation into alleged municipal irregularities in East St. Louis, Ill., culminated yesterday in the publication of a sworn confession of bribery made by Joseph A. Fansler, a former member of the East St. Louis City Council.

The confession came within a few days of a statement by State's Attorney Webb, that he would lay any evidence of municipal irregularities before the grand jury which will meet in September and that he was prepared to offer immunity to any guilty person who should aid the State in securing convictions.

Six members of the City Council shared in the division of the first $3,000 according to the confession, and four members in the division of the second $3,000. Both bribes were paid in 1912, it is charged.

Charles S. Lambert, then Mayor of East St. Louis, is named in the confession as the man who handed one of the Council $1,500 of the is said, went to John L.
